

Friends Season Ten DVD Set

The tenth season of the Friends TV show was aired from fall 2003 to spring 2004, bringing to an end the long-lasting success story of America's finest TV show.

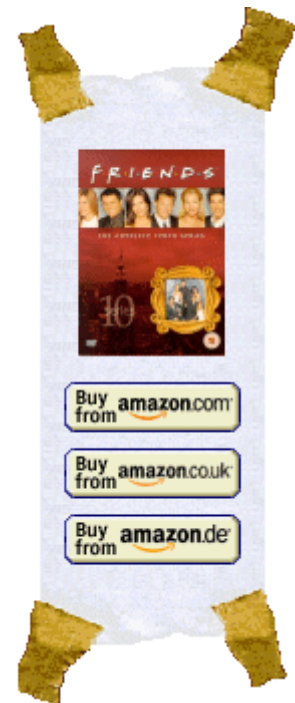

Plot Summary

This season starts off with Ross making out with Charlie, and Joey making out with Rachel. Ross is clearly freaked out seeing Joey and Rachel together, and the two also realize that they make better friends than lovers, so they call off the relationship. One third into the season, Charlie falls for one of her ex-boyfriends, and so she and Ross break up, too.

Meanwhile, Phoebe and Mike get engaged. Two thirds through the season, they then get married in the street outside Central Perk, with all the friends attending and Joey filling in as the priest.

Monica and Chandler are approved for adoption. Erica, a pregnant woman from Ohio, selects them as the future parents to her unborn baby. Monica and Chandler also buy a house in Westchester, a New York suburb, to raise the child there. By the end of the season, Erica gives birth to twins: One is named Erica, the other one is named Jack.

Joey has a difficult time coming to grasps with all the changes around him, especially after his long-time agent Estelle dies.

Ross gets tenure at his job while Rachel, interviewing for a new job at Gucci and unfortunately sitting next to her current boss at Ralph Lauren, loses her job there. However, she runs into her old friend Mark, who offers her a job at Louis Vuitton in Paris. When Ross learns how important Paris is to Rachel, he tells her to go -- while he's shattered to pieces.

Before leaving for France, Rachel says goodbye to everyone but Ross -- because it's the hardest thing she'd ever had to do. He gets mad and the two of them end up in a passionate kiss. Rachel still boards a plane to Paris. In the final moments of the show, she returns from the airport, shows up at Ross' doorstep, and they decide to be together.
